Advertise with the Athens Choral Society

An Athens staple for over 50 years, the Athens Choral Society is the longest performing non-audition community chorus in our area. We are open to anyone in the community who loves to sing. We perform a variety of classical and popular music in up to 6 concerts per year (3 or 4 shows in summer, 1 in fall and 1 in spring).

Advertising your business in our concert programs shows your support for the arts in our community. More than 1,500 audience members will see your ad over the course of the year!
